Dear Mr. Martland:

Thank you very much for your letter which you sent me via Senator Karl Mundt.

I deeply appreciate the patriotic motivation which prompted you to write to me as you did. I will be glad to see you in November or talk to you earlier if you wish. I might suggest that you telephone me (Executive [redacted]) when your plans are made so that we may arrange a mutually convenient date when we could get together.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

SIGNED
